DETAILED ACTION

1. Information Disclosure Statement filed on 4/14/05 has been received.

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the brake shoes and springs molded together must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. There is no disclosure as to how a brake shoe can be molded in one piece with a spring given the rest of the disclosure.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1-4,6-13,15,16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Cunningham (U. S. Patent no. 3,135,137).

See figures brake shoes with pads 10, flyweights 22, support 12, hinge tab around 11, springs 23

Pad is interpreted as the element that contacts the element to be braked against in order to stop the relative motion.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 1-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Newport (U. S. Patent no. 5,988,328) in view of Swartwout (U. S. Patent no. 4,647,801). Newport discloses: support 40, brake shoes 44 with pads 70,72, springs 48, flyweights 44

Newport does not disclose hinging the flyweights and brake shoes to the support.

Swartwout teaches hinging the flyweights and brake shoes to the support (see figure 2 assembly 10). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to hinge the brake shoes and flyweights to the support as taught by Swartwout in the brake of Newport as it allows for more sensitive reaction of the brake device. The brake shoes of Newport have to slide past the part of support 40 in order to move. That means that the force of the spring and frictional forces have to be overcome before the flyweight starts to move outwards.
